

minderoo

Snr IT Infrastructure Engineer

Minderoo is proudly Australian encompassing the Minderoo Foundation (founded in 2001 by Andrew and Nicola Forrest) and the private business holdings of the Minderoo Group.

We are seeking a highly capable and technically proficient Senior IT Infrastructure Engineer to support and enhance existing IT infrastructure, with the opportunity to implement new infrastructure to ensure a best practice approach to systems development.

Key Responsibilities:

- Responsible for Cyber Security across Minderoo and its entities, keep up to date with current trends and threats
- Oversee and perform the implementation of new technologies
- Develop written procedures and other technical documentation to support effective implementation
- Provide technical leadership and high-level technical skills in the analysis of ICT system issues and the formulation, design and provision of appropriate solutions and improvements
- Assist with the co-ordination of the staff, projects and activities of the work unit, including support for day to day operations and projects
- Provide, maintain and co-ordinate the server and network administration function of the server, network and desktop operating environment
- Analyse and recommend maintenance upgrades or enhancement requests for network and server infrastructure
- Enhance and upgrade older ICT systems to new as per project work packages.
- Work on modernisation and implementation projects within the ICT business unit

Qualifications and Experience:

- 5+ years' experience within a similar role, strong experience with the following technologies
 - Microsoft Windows Server 2016
 - Active Directory/Group Policies/Trust relationships
 - RADIUS, DHCP, DNS, Certificate Server, WAP
 - Virtualisation (VMWare, Hyper-V)
 - Backups
 - Strong Cloud Services skills, Azure and AWS (in-depth knowledge of both)
 - Networking
 - LAN, WAN, MPLS, 3/4G Data Links, Satellite Services (Land, Air and Sea).
 - Strong Ubiquity, Huawei, Palo Alto and Cisco networking skills.
 - Strong Office365 administration skills, SharePoint, Email etc.
- Substantial experience and achievement in developing and implementing information technology policies and practice
 - able to bridge the gap between the business and IT stakeholders
- Experience working with cloud providers such as AWS or Azure

minderoo

- Project Management skills
- Good working knowledge of technology available and capabilities of this technology
- Strong communication and report writing skills

Applications close Monday 19 November 2018

recruitment@minderoo.com.au